Page 17 the 10-page declaration dated April 28th, 1995 or that 1 the conclusions you reached in that declaration were 3 not true; is that right?

4 My testimony is that the conclusions are not true. The factual foundations of everything that 5 6 happened truthfully happened in my office. That's true. The conclusions are not true because at the time in 1995 when I made the declaration I had -- I S 9 went through my file. What I had in my file was the 10 January 21st, 1993 letter from me to Britton Sanderford and I had a letter of February 16th from 11 Erin Pierce to me, but I had nothing to show that I 12 13 had followed through and there was any follow-through 14 or any other matter after -- or even a telephone 1.5 conference in response to her letter of February 16th, 16 1993. And I don't recall having any telephone 17 conference. This document shows that a telephone 18 conference in fact happened, which I did not recall. 119 And this document shows that -- could I have the 20 document for a moment? 21

Q Sure.

MR. WOLBRETTE: We have an extra copy.

Page 18

MR. USDIN: Thank you.

2 THE WITNESS: This document shows first 3 that in response to her February 16th letter, that she 4 had a telephone conference. That's the first 5 statement that she makes. 6

Then down in the bottom paragraph, in the last paragraph, this tells me that a decision was to be made by Mike Eckstein as to whether it would be more advantageous for us on the JA suit to let the patent go unintentionally abandoned. This means that they, Axonn was making a conscious decision of whether to let this case go abandoned and that I did not know that this was going on and these discussions were happening in the Axonn case, in-house at the time.

Then she discusses further one of the solutions to the problem. If we filed a disgruntled employee affidavit, which I had advised on earlier in the month, it needs to be in the Patent Office by this Friday. Did Mike discuss this before he left. She is sending this to Britton. So she is saying did Mike discuss this with Britton Sanderford. She said "L called Mike's office and had Shelly ask him." I guess

1 that is Mike Eckstein, "when he," Mike Eckstein, "called in, but I believe Mike told Shelly he would call Dave tonight." I don't recall any telephone conference from Mike Eckstein at that time. It looks like if we don't make a decision today, the decision will be made for us and the patent will go abandoned.

So this tells me that Axonn had in their possession information, this document for one, that the conclusions in my affidavit were incorrect when these were made in April of 1995. And I was unaware of this information, and two years later, because in April 1995, this is two years after these events, I did not have any other memory of what had happened at 13 that time.

BY MR. USDIN:

0 Now one thing that confused me in your answer a little while ago, you said you were not aware that these discussions were going on. But if you were relying on this memo, it says "Dave is waiting" -that's you, Dave, I assume. Wouldn't you assume that to be you? 22 11

That's right. You can't do something unintentional --

Q Is that --

MR. WOLBRETTE: Wait: Let him finish his answer.

THE WITNESS: I would agree that you cannot intentionally abandon something as unintentional. It is either intentional or unintentional. I would agree with that. And my advice to them was that the case not go abandoned at all because it was not a -- it is a consequence, not an option as I saw it at the time. But they -- you don't let it intentionally go abandoned and call it unintentional. At the time, for whatever reason, with the James Arthur lawsuit and with James Arthur not cooperating with them, they had -- I had given them some advice on how to proceed and the advice was basically several-fold. They could

- Q What was your understanding?
- A I don't recall. In 1993, I don't recall.
- Q That recollection has not been refreshed from looking at any of this?
- A I still can't tell from this. This looks to me like they were in a bind. And they made a decision, they had a conscious awareness of the options and they made a decision.
- Q And is that intentional or unintentional abandonment that results from that decision?
- A You know, I think more investigation has to be done now to find out what was in their state of mind at the time, because I don't know. The answer is I think it's unintentional based on when they are backed up against the wall. But they cannot proceed freely on their own accord. That to me is unintentional.
- Q Did you ever make any filings with the PTO that made that argument?
- A i don't recall any filings that I have made at this point. I just don't recall.

 - A That's correct.
- Q And you are saying now you would not have done that.
- A I wouldn't have done it without the client authorization. And based on my recollection of what happened in 1993, they did not, they Axonn did not want me to proceed with representations that Arthurwas an inventor.
 - Q Did they ever state that in writing to you?
- A I can't recall all the writings I have from them. I don't know if I have that or not in the records.

Okay, that's all true. Those things 13 happened. But the conclusion, "I would have timely submitted a continuation patent application on or before the critical date of February 18th, 1993 and 15 116 the present application would not have been

- 1 I reviewed all -- whenever you say all, the
- 2 reason I hesitate about these questions, you say all
- and everything like that and I always think there is. 3
- 4one missing that I didn't see or something like that.
- 5 Because my mind thinks in absolutes. So I will say I
- reviewed all the documents I had in my possession at 6.
- 7 the time, yes.
 - Q ... Have you reviewed all the documents that have been produced during this litigation by both
- 9 10 sides? 11
 - I don't know that I have reviewed all that you have produced on your side.
 - Your counsel didn't provide that to you.
 - A I don't know if they did or didn't. I have problems when someone says all like that. So I'm going to hesitate and I want to clarify from time to time.
 - Before we broke we were looking at the interrogatories and I asked you to go ahead and read interrogatories six and 12.
- 21 Okay. Yes, I read number six now. I'm 22 current on number six.

Page 138

- 1 Go ahead and read number 12 too, please.
 - Α Okay. I have read these, yes.
- \circ The first question I have is in
- interrogatory number six you refer to contacts with
- certain people and several occasions where you got
 - instructions. Are all of those contacts and
- 7 discussions that are referred to in number six also 8
- referred to in number 12 or are there other ones other 9 than what are identified in number 12?
 - There are others not identified in number Α 12.
 - Okay. Then starting at interrogatory number six, what contacts did you have with Britton Sanderford, Michael Eckstein and Erin Pierce to keep them apprised of the status of the proceeding?
 - At what point in time?
 - Any of the ones that you are referring to 0 in number six.
 - Well, clearly the February 1, 1993 telephone conference, which I want to correct my previous testimony about I do remember having that telephone conference not before this week, but I

Page 139

- 1 remember having that before this week. And also I
- 2 remember the February 10th telephone conference which
- 3 we discussed with Michael Eckstein. And there was --
- 4 with respect to reviving on the time, on the February
- 5 16th, I don't recall any telephone conference as I
- 6 stated previously with Erin, but I do recall that
- 7 telephone conference with her just responding to her
- 8 letter. But I recall very little other than I said we
- 9 don't abandon the case.
 - Q · I'm sorry?
 - That we don't abandon cases.
 - You told her you don't abandon cases?
- 13 Α It is my correct representation I think in
- 14 this interrogatory number 12 that I said we don't --
- 15 abandonment is not an option. It is not the option.
- 16 And it's not the way we talk. Not intentional
- 17 abandonment. Then I had discussions with Britton
- 18 Sanderford and Michael Eckstein in March, April.
- 19 All right. I'm trying to expedite this in 20 a way if I can. All of those are referred to in
- 21 number 12 and we are going to get to that.
 - Okay.

Page 140

- Other than the ones that are in 12, I'm Q
- interested in what you are referring to in
 - interrogatory number six in addition to the
 - conversations laid out in number 12.
 - Α Lord.
 - Q · If any.
 - It's hard to remember. I remember having telephone conferences in September of 1993 with Mike Eckstein. And I remember telephone conferences -
 - September of what year? Q
 - A 1993. And I remember telephone conferences
- 12 in October. There were telephone conferences in 13
- October of 1993, but I don't remember much detail. 14
- I'm sure there were telephone conferences in November 15
- of 1993. I don't know if I had any telephone 16
- conferences in December of 1993 or not. I can't 17 recall. Then there were some in January of 1994 and
- 18 there may be other telephone conferences in '94 too. 19
 - Tell me what conversations you recall with anyone relating to Axonn. What conversations do you recall with anyone from Axonn in September of 1993?
 - I remember one with Mike Eckstein. He

Page 141 called me in the evening at home. And the issue, I 2 thought he was calling about revival of the patent 3 application, that this was important, and instead he called, he wanted to talk about having a kickback and 4 5 some fee on the Cargill case. ó

So he was talking about the Cargill fee, nothing about the abandoned patent?

He said that was not important to him. The fee was what was important. That is what he wanted to talk about.

Q Those were his words?

Α I don't recall his words.

Tell me what you can recall that he said. Q

Α Well, I can't recall words from 1993.

0 Did he tell you that the revival of the patent was not important?

. A Well, he put it in comparison.

0 Tell me what he said that you can recall.

Α I just recall that he wanted to talk about, he put it, he said he wanted to talk about fee. He didn't want to talk about revival. Revival would be more important.

Page 142

1 Q Did he say that the revival wasn't important or did he just say he didn't want to talk 3 about that, he wanted to talk about the fee?

No, he said the fee is more important.

5 0 He said the fee is more important?

I don't recall the exact words. Because you are asking me what he said now. I can't remember the exact words. I just remember that he wanted to talk about the fee and there was discussion.

Did he say that he did not want to talk about the abandonment because it was not important? Do you recall him saying that or words to that effect?

Α I don't recall the exact words.

Do you recall him saying words to that 0 effect, whether they are the exact words or not?

It was my present sense impression at that time from the telephone conference that the abandonment was not important to him, the fee was what was important.

Q In that conversation or generally?

In that conversation. Α

0 How long was that conversation?

Well, these were a number of telephone calls during September of 1993.

0 So there was more than one.

Α Yes.

0 Because you said there was one you recall he called you at home.

Α They were all at home.

O So how many were there?

Ά I don't recall. He could always get me at home when he wanted to call me.

At the end of the discussion about the fee did you bring it back to the abandoned patent and discussions about the revival effort?

A No.

Q So you didn't bring it up again?

A

Q Did you bring it up in the first place, the abandoned patent, or he brought it up?

I believe I brought it up, because that was something that everybody was aware of and I thought this is, you know, he had some news. He had responsibility for getting these declarations in the

James Arthur case and I thought he had news for me.

But he didn't say he had any news for you 3 in September; is that correct?

4 I don't -- well, obviously he didn't have 5 any, so I don't recall any.

What else do you recall about any of the conversations in September of 1993?

8 A. He wanted a piece of the fee of the Cargill 9 case. 10

Was that what all of the conversation was 0 . about?

Α That's what it stayed focused on.

13 0 In any of the other September 1993 14 conversations were there any discussions about the 15

abandoned patent? 16

 \mathbf{A} . I don't recall.

O You don't recall any?

18 A I don't recall.

19 O Was anybody else involved in these 20 discussions other than the two of you?

> \mathbf{A} Yes.

Q Who?

- aside the assignment of his rights to Axonn, then
- James Arthur would become an owner of the patents with
- an undivided interest shared with Axonn. Okay? Then
- there is no duty of accounting if they had no
- contract. Therefore, with respect to the Cargill
- litigation for the patents that were issued, he could
- go and sell or assign, sell, assign or license his
- rights to Cargill and with respect to other licensees.
- If they had any, he could sell, assign, license his
- rights to the other licensees.
- 0 So what was your recommendation for action to be taken?
- Α Well, first off, on removing his name from the three patents, I told him I could not do that.
- James Arthur from what I recalled in 1988 and from
- Britton Sanderford's representations to me, that James
- Arthur was the key inventor, the most important inventor. I knew for at least those three issued
- patents and also for the patent that was pending, I
- told him I could not remove James Arthur's name from
- the patent application. I felt that it could not be
- done. It would be wrong because he was the true
- age 207
- He told me not to proceed.
- O Who told you that?
- Α They told me. Eckstein and Sanderford.
- 0 What did you tell them would be the consequence of inaction?
- Inaction is that if the case is not revived imminently, because now I'm getting concerned they are just letting the case go and the safe period would pass and we would not get the case revived, it is unintentional, that the case would not be revivable at all.
- And they told you nonetheless they didn't want to do anything at that time?
 - A Do not proceed.
- 0 Okay. Anything else you recall about the June conversation?
- Oh, yes, I recall more. Britton Sanderford was trying to make a case why James Arthur was not an inventor by trying to say this is what Britton invented, this is what James invented. And it became clear to me that it was his position now or taken because of the James Arthur litigation and for no

- inventor.
- They asked what other options did they have-
- for reviving and having a patent without James
- Arthur's name on it. I said the only option I could
- see from that point on was if we revived the patent
- application just as a continuation, just revive it and
- file it as a continuation, and then if at the same
- time while that is pending file a continuation in part
- patent application with new matter and have in that
- 10 new patent application claims for which James Arthur
- 11 was clearly not an inventor, then you could proceed on
- 12 the CIP without James Arthur as a co-inventor. But I
- 13 said with respect to the patent that was pending, I
- 14 said with the representation that had been made to the
- 15 Patent Office that James Arthur was an inventor, I did
- 16 not see any way that his name could be removed from
- 17 the patent.
- 18 0 Who else was involved in this meeting other than Mr. Eckstein and Mr. Sanderford and yourself? 19
 - A I don't recall if anyone else was there.
- 21 What was the result of that discussion? 22 What actions were decided upon, if any?

- 1 other reason that now Britton was the inventor and
- James Arthur was not the inventor. But from the
- 3 representations I remember from 1988, James Arthur and
- Britton Sanderford appeared to be among the best of
- buddies, the best of friends, and there was no
- hostility among them. And based on Mr. Sanderford's
- direction that James Arthur's name go first on the
- 8 patent application because he was the lead inventor, I
- 9 put his name first.
 - So that all relates to the discussion about whether you could remove Mr. Arthur's name or not.
 - That is correct.
- 13 And you told them they could not.
- 14 Ä I did not see any way it could be done.
 - You told them they couldn't. 0
- 16 That is correct.
- 17 What else do you recall about that O 18 discussion?
 - Α Right now I don't recall anything else.
- 20 Did they ever again try and bring that up, 21 the idea of removing Mr. Arthur's name?
 - Yes.

O And the only evidence that you know that supports your version of you telling the client what these options are is your memory; right? No documents confirming it? No letters? No notes?

A Well, I think it's more than the memory. I think also some of the E-mail faxes in August verifies, is consistent with what was going on, and I think the actions with the lawsuit and how they were behaving is consistent with what was going on.

MR. WOLBRETTE: Are you referring to the other inventors could have filed the disgruntled employee affidavit? Are you asking him if he never told them that? I think he has testified about ten times today that he in fact did tell them that.

MR. USDIN: No. I'm asking did he ever tell Axonn that the refusal of one inventor to cooperate did not justify a delay in prosecution.

delay in prosecution.

I did. That's just the opposite. I did. That's correct. The answer is I did.

When did you tell them that?

This was the whole bit about when we were trying to revive and telling people that leaving the case abandoned is not proper. We have to get the case revived. My discussions with Mike Eckstein. This is what that was about. We have to get this case revived. It is not supposed to be abandoned. It is not supposed to stay abandoned.

Q Was that after the February 18th filing date?

Now after your withdrawal and the decision by the U.S. PTO --

A And --

MR. USDIN: For the record --

THE WITNESS: Just a minute. Back up on that question.

MR. USDIN: I have asked it. I'm going to move on.

Page 280

MR. WOLBRETTE: No, he wants to reply further.

MR. USDIN: For the record, and so there is no mistake, Mr. Wolbrette has put his head in his hands with a sigh and now Mr. Newman is wanting to amend his answer.

MR. WOLBRETTE: I have done that because we have given answers and produced documents that show that exactly what you are asking about is what is discussed, and you know it, we know it. And Mr. Newman wants to clarify his answer now.

THE WITNESS: Now you are saying only after -- the question I'm understanding is you are focusing after the March it was discussed again, in the March and the other meetings.

BY MR. USDIN:

O Yeah. But I'm asking about before.

À Oh, about before?

Q I'm asking about before February 18th,

20 1993.

Oh, okay. Yes, that was discussed.

Q Okay. When?

Page 281 1 That was with the February, on or around Α 2 February 10 telephone conference with Mike Eckstein and also -- and I don't recall who it could have been. 3 4 Not could have been. It was discussed during the February 10 meeting, February 1, 1993 meeting, 6 telephone, with Mike Eckstein and Britton Sanderford. 7 In that conversation you told them you are 8 testifying here under oath that the refusal of one 9 inventor to cooperate did not justify a delay in 10 prosecution. 11 MR. WOLBRETTE: Object to the form of the 12 question. Counsel, you have referred to perjury about 13 16 times or so. Maybe that's an exaggeration, but a 14 lot. 15 MR. USDIN: I think it is. 16 MR. WOLBRETTE: That's absolutely improper. 17 You know it is totally improper to suggest that kind 18 of thing in a question. I object to it. 19 MR. USDIN: I don't usually do that, but 20 the only reason I'm doing that is because we have a 21 declaration that is under penalty of perjury and he is now saying there are things in it that are incorrect. Page 283 1 O Are you going to answer the question, 2 please? 3 The answer is yes, because this was the 4 advice that -- wait a minute. Hold on. Ask the 5 question again. I'm so confused right now with all 6 the discussion going back and forth. 7 Q Prior to February 18th, 1993 did you tell 8 Axonn or anyone at Axonn that the refusal of one 9 inventor to cooperate did not justify a delay in 10 prosecution? 11 Yes. As best my recollection, I believe. 12 The best of my recollection, yes. I didn't use those 13 words, but yes, that was discussed. 14 Did you tell them that you were certain 15 that that was the case or that there was a risk that 16 that might happen or that it might be unintentional? 17 There are too many pronouns in your 18 question again. USDIN: So right now we have 6 Mr. Newman. 7 THE WITNESS: Mr. Henri is correct. The 8 reference, the only reference for the one-year filing 9 period which is waived and revive the above patent 10 application is granted came from the due process 10

12 petition to revive, that was the added argument from 13 his prior petition, under the grounds of the one year, 14 the due process requirement of one year and the other terms as given in this ruling. So in my opinion the 15 only conclusion you are going to have of that argument 16 is what was different from the prior petition that was 17 argument. You have to remember in the renewed

Α Okay. To support that, they cite the provision and that's it.

So you are referring to the same paragraph, the fourth paragraph in the decision.

11 A The fourth paragraph and also further down 12 as they go through this they are citing the same procedures I cite, in the interest of justice and in the due process argument. They relied on the interest of justice, but the argument of due process was the added value in the brief of Mr. Kuesters. That was added in his brief that revived the case different from the prior brief.

Q Okay. One more question, if I can ask you this one. You testified, we had some fairly prolonged discussion as a matter of fact, that you did tell Axonn before February of 1993, before February 18th, 1993, that the refusal of one inventor to cooperate did not justify delay in prosecution. That's what you testified to. And if that is the case, then what was your basis for filing a petition under 137(a) subsequent to that?

They were in a situation that their hands were tied because of the James Arthur suit and again the James Arthur refusing to cooperate. And I viewed this at that time in my judgment in February of 1993 0 that this was an unintentional situation, that Axonn did not intentionally bring upon itself, that was inflicted on them by James Arthur. And that was the basis for that.

> 0 137(a) is unavoidable delay; correct?

A That is correct.

MR. WOLBRETTE: Maybe there is no communication. If the question was unavoidable and your question was unintentional, there is no hookup between the question and the answer. Maybe it ought to be asked again.

BY MR. USDIN:

Q Let me ask it this way then. Did you ever tell Axonn prior to February 18th, 1993 that the 2 refusal of an inventor to cooperate would be 3 considered an unavoidable delay? 4

Page 312

Α That it was an unavoidable situation?

O Did you ever tell Axonn prior to February 18th, 1993 that the refusal of one inventor to cooperate would be considered an avoidable, an avoidable delay?

9 A You are asking me whether it's an avoidable 10 -- I'm getting so tired here. My head is spinning 11 around. You are asking me if I told prior to February 12

18th, 1993 if the refusal was avoidable. Because they 13 were in a situation with James Arthur not signing and

14 James Arthur's lawsuit. They were put in an

15 unavoidable situation. They were put in the 16 unavoidable situation. And at the time I saw it as an

17 unintentional situation. I saw it as an unintentional

18 situation. Axonn did not intentionally bring it upon

19 themselves.

20 Q But the 137(a) petition is unavoidable 21 delay; right?

> Α That's correct.
